

34 Tweed Court Thurgoona NSW

4 2 2

In January 2017 Nick Dempsey, a young apprentice plumber and talented sportsman, broke his neck in a diving accident. Diagnosed with C4 quadriplegia, Nick faces a lengthy recovery and costly rehabilitation. Over the past year our community has contributed labour and products to build a home to be auctioned. The proceeds will provide Nick Dempsey with much needed rehabilitation.

Presenting a jaw dropping impressive brand-new build from entry to exit. Quality defines every aspect of this brand-new contemporary residence, with no expense spared during design and construction.

With a north facing luxury alfresco area maximising sunlight throughout the day and evening, is primed for entertaining family and friends. Effortlessly meeting the demands of modern living, this spectacular property leaves nothing
